

Articulation Agreement

Central New Mexico Community College and EC-Council University

Central New Mexico Community College and EC-Council University proudly announce the collaboration of efforts and resources to promote educational and career opportunities for the students of New Mexico.

I. PURPOSE

This articulation agreement is designed to identify transfer pathways for Associate degree graduates and support transition through coordinated transfer policies, enhanced advising and by promoting the acceptance of transfer courses/credits between Central New Mexico Community (CNM) College and EC-Council University.

ELEMENTS OF THE AGREEMENT

A. Admissions Practices

1. EC-Council University will grant admission for students from CNM upon completion of an Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, and Associate of Applied Science degree program. Associate degree programs recommended for transfer are as follows:
  - a) Associate of Arts in Business
  - b) Associate of Applied Science in Criminal Justice
  - c) Associate of Applied Science in Computer Information Systems: All concentrations
  - d) Associate of Applied Science in Electronic Health Informatics

B. Acceptance and Application of Credits

1. With an earned Associate's degree, and a minimum cumulative Grade Point Average (G.P.A.) of 2.0, students meet EC-Council University admissions requirement.
2. EC-Council University will receive 60 credit hours of coursework from an Associate's degree and apply directly towards the 120 total credit hour requirement for the Bachelor of Science in Information Security; unless specified on an individual basis with an EC-Council administrator.
3. Additionally, CNM and EC-Council University have identified courses that articulate and directly satisfy requirements within the General Education coursework of the Bachelor of Science in Information Security.

Central New Mexico Community College Course	EC-Council University Course Equivalent
BA 2281 - Ethics in Business (3)	BIS 430 - Ethics for the Business Professional (3)
ENG 2219 - Technical Writing (3)	COM 340 - Communications & Technical Writing (3)
ECON 2201 – Microeconomics (3)	ECON 440 - Principles of Microeconomics (3)

MATH 1330 - Introduction to Probability & Statistics (3)	MATH 350 - Introduction to Statistics (3)

*Note: If student completes coursework identified in the above table at CNM, as part of their Associate degree plan, they may still be required to complete additional credit hours to fulfill the required 60 credit hour block transfer by EC-Council University.

4. A candidate for the EC-Council University Bachelor of Science in Information Security degree must meet any additional and specific requirements indicated for the degree program outlined in the EC-Council University catalog. Students will follow the degree program requirements of the EC-Council catalog for their initial year of enrollment at CNM with that program being an option for six years, or a student may elect to use requirements described in any subsequent/future catalog.
5. Limit on hours earned through ACT and CLEP examinations, Adult Learning and Education Experiences, AP and correspondence work (or combination of the previous) will apply as described in the catalog. EC-Council University students may receive a maximum of 12 graduate credit hours of transfer credit in the graduate program and 81 credits of transfer credit in the Bachelor's program. Transfer credits are not considered in the calculation of the student's ECCU cumulative GPA.

C. Implementation of the Agreement

1. EC-Council University and CNM agree to review this agreement every third year from inception or as needed. CNM and EC-Council will designate an individual to serve as liaison for the purpose of monitoring this agreement. Each institution will provide updated catalogs to the other immediately upon their availability. Upon request, EC-Council agrees to provide CNM reports on enrolled CNM transfer students and academic performance to the extent permitted by law.
2. EC-Council and CNM agree to assist each other in promoting this agreement appropriately in their respective promotional materials, events, web sites, and reports.
3. All notices to be given shall be delivered in writing as follows:

If to CNM:	If to ECCU:
Dr. Sydney Gunthorpe Vice President for Academic Affairs Office of Academic Affairs 525 Buena Vista Dr. SE Albuquerque, NM 87106	Dr. Randy Plunkett Dean Chief Administrative Officer 101 C Sun Avenue NE Albuquerque, NM 87109

4. This agreement will remain in effect until terminated by either party on ninety (90) days prior written notice. In the event of the dissolution of this agreement, the terms contained herein will remain in effect for the maximum transitional period of two (2) years to accommodate students already enrolled under the agreement.

5. Special cases not explicitly or implicitly described in the current Memorandum will be considered on a case-by-case basis by mutual agreement between CNM and EC-Council University representatives.
