Ernest Garcia Emerging Artist Scholarship Spring 2019

The Ernest Garcia Emerging Artist Scholarship Endowment has been established through The CNM Foundation to provide a onetime award for excellence to CNM art students. The selected students will have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in studio art. Awards may be divided among the top eligible applicants as selected by the CNM Art Studio Faculty Selection Committee.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Enrolled in CNM studio art courses
- Minimum GPA of 3.00

To Apply:

Send an email to artscholarship@cnm.edu with your full name in the subject line. Attach the following files:

1st Attachment: The completed scholarship application (fill out by hand, scan and attached to the email or turn the hard copy form into the Art Studio Lab Tech at Main, Montoya or West Side campus)

2nd Attachment:

One Page Artist Statement:

Paragraph 1: Your full name and Artist statement about your work

Paragraph 2: Description of how the scholarship funds would be used if awarded.

3rd Attach 5 images of your original art works with a numbered corresponding list:

When selecting works, emphasis should be placed on personally developed artworks that reflect a body or series of creative work and less on samplings from class projects. The attached numbered corresponding list should include the following information for each artwork and should be in order of the images attached. This list must contain: The title of each art work, the dimensions of each art work (HxWxD) and the media used to create each artwork.
