

CNM Scholarships Information

Advantage Scholarship* – CNM General Scholarship – CNM Legislative Scholarship – Day Care Scholarship – Graduation Incentive Scholarship

Included in CNM scholarship offerings are the Advantage Scholarship*, CNM General Scholarship, CNM Legislative Scholarship, Day Care Scholarship and the Graduation Incentive Scholarship. These scholarships are intended to help students with the cost of attending CNM and encourage New Mexico residents to complete a degree or certificate program at CNM.

Awards are distributed with consideration for the student's program of study with the intent of assisting students in the most useful way possible. Funds are awarded as students complete the application and meet scholarships requirements.

Funds are limited and vary each year.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Admitted to CNM with a major that is financial aid eligible

Application:

Complete the CNM Scholarship Application online starting in October for the upcoming academic year. It remains open as long as funds are available. Students eligible to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must also have a completed and packaged Financial Aid record. A new online application must be completed for each academic year.

Students unable to complete a FAFSA:

Students who are unable to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) can be considered for CNM scholarships by completing the CNM Scholarship Application online. CNM offers state and institutional scholarships to New Mexico residents who do not have a Social Security Number and are unable to complete a FAFSA. Other scholarship requirements remain the same.
