French Stewart Presidential Scholarship

Fall 2018 – Spring 2019

The French Stewart Presidential Scholarship is awarded to a CNM Dual Credit student pursuing a business related associate degree at CNM who has been involved in community service. Awards will be made to the top eligible applicant. The selected recipient will be awarded for two years divided between fall and spring each year if eligibility is maintained. The scholarship will cover educational costs and expenses including tuition (if not covered by another tuition scholarship), registration, technology, and course fees and textbook cost.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Complete at least 6 credits while in high school as a CNM Dual Credit student with a 3.0 GPA or better
- Enroll in at least 12 credit hours in a business related associate degree program
- Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

Application Requirements:

- Provide a personal essay including interest in and need for this scholarship, your community service involvement as a high school student and your goals for continuing to serve the community – one page maximum
- Meet with an Academic Coach and document your Curriculum Advising Program Plan (CAPP)
- One letter of reference
- Attached high school transcript with cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Community service project participation verification preferred
- Undergo an interview process - you may be contacted with additional information if necessary

To maintain eligibility: The selected recipient must complete at least 12 credits each term with a cumulative CNM GPA of 3.0 or better, meet with an Academic Coach each term for a CAPP report and continue to meet all qualifications as outlined in the Student Agreement Contract.
