

Dual Credit Presidential Scholarships
Aspire-Education & Community
Robert and Mary Matteucci
Fall 2018 – Spring 2019

The Aspire-Education & Community and the Robert and Mary Matteucci Dual Credit Presidential Scholarships are awarded to a CNM Dual-Credit student who will be pursuing an associate’s degree at CNM and has been involved in community service. Awards will be made to top eligible applicants. The selected recipient will be awarded $2500 per year for two years divided between fall and spring if eligibility is maintained. The scholarship will cover educational costs and expenses including tuition (if not covered by another tuition scholarship), registration, technology, and course fees and textbook cost.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Complete at least 6 credits while in high school as a CNM Dual Credit student with a 3.0 GPA or better
- Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Enroll in at least 12 credit hour in a declared program degree

Application Requirements:

- Print and complete the Aspire-Education & Community application and the Robert and Mary Matteucci application found online at cnm.edu/dual credit
- Provide a personal essay addressing the community service you have conducted as a high school student and your goals for continuing to serve the community – one page maximum
- Meet with a CNM Connect Achievement Coach and document your Curriculum Advising Program Plan (CAPP)
- One letter of reference
- Undergo an interview process - you will be contacted with additional information

To maintain eligibility: The selected recipient must complete at least 12 credits each term with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better, meet with a CNM Connect Achievement coach each term to review progress on CAPP and meet all qualifications as outlined in the Student Agreement Contract.
